

Narrator: Unit Two Test

Mark: We always get so much homework! When do you do yours?

Linda: I usually do it after school. What about you?

Mark: I don't really like school, so I always do it in the mornings.

Linda: Really? What time do you get up?

Mark: At seven o'clock.

Linda: So are you at school at half past eight? That's when I get there. And school starts then.

Mark: Yeah! Most days I'm there before that – at a quarter past eight!

Linda: What do you like at school?

Mark: Football is good.

Linda: Ugh! I don't like that. I really like English.

Mark: Yeah, English is OK. And what do you do in the evenings?

Linda: I often do drama. I have classes on Mondays and Thursdays after school. And sometimes I listen to music.

Mark: I do, too. And sometimes I play chess.

Linda: Who do you play with?

Mark: My brother. He's really good.
